

Fulbright-Hays Faculty Research Abroad 2010-11 competition: Deadline: Noon, Friday, November 13, 2009. Click here for more information.

The campus deadline is the required deadline for all faculty applicants. The FRA is an institutional grant program; the UW-Madison applies on your behalf. The national deadline (Closing Date) is the institutional deadline; the campus deadline is for individual faculty members applying through UW-Madison and is not negotiable. All application materials and support documents MUST be submitted electronically by 12 PM, Friday, November 13, 2009. This is an entirely electronic submission system; I request one hard copy of your application for your file here. New application materials will be made available as Word or PDF docs through www.ed.gov/programs/iegpsfra/index.html. The electronic application is accessed through <http://e-grants.ed.gov>.

Federal forms will be forwarded by Dr. Erin Crawley to Research and Sponsored Programs for signatures after the campus deadline. The electronic applications and required federal forms will then be submitted electronically to the US Department of Education UW-Madison BEFORE the closing date of the competition.

The electronic application is comprised of

--application forms

--project statement (10 pages)

--bibliography (2 pages)

--cv

--Statement of Institutional Support

--Foreign Language Evaluation

--letters of affiliation, if available

--Human Subjects narrative OR Notice of Action, sent to fellow@intl-institute.wisc.edu as a Word doc via email
